"It is rare that we have an exhibition at the Triton Museum of Art that so thoroughly transcends our expectations. Maxine Solomon's work is pure poetry and as such it made the viewing experience a true reward."

ArtHaus Gallerists James Bacchi and Annette Schutz are pleased to announce the opening of THE SPACE OF IN BETWEEN, an exhibition of new paintings by Bay Area artist Maxine Solomon. This show opens with a reception for the artist on Friday evening, January 6, 2012, from 6-8pm.

According to the artist, "The combination of quiet glazes with active brushstrokes captures a moment in time, leaving the viewer to wonder if the image is merely abstract or a colorful landscape. Delve deeper within the layers of paint to find hidden images and meanings, or travel further into these layers to see an intricate and textured surface. The choice is that of the viewer. As I work, each painting speaks to me – not only of the beauty of our world, but also of its endangerment."

Maxine Solomon is represented in San Francisco by ArtHaus. Her work has extensively been exhibited by museums and galleries in the Bay Area and internationally. Additionally, Solomon's work has been featured in many publications, including New American Paintings, San Francisco Chronicle, ArtWeek and Zyzyyva Magazine.

THE SPACE OF IN BETWEEN continues at ArtHaus through March 31, 2012. Gallery hours are Tuesday-Friday, 11am-6pm, and Saturday, Noon-5pm. ArtHaus is located at 411 Brannan Street, between 3rd and 4th Streets. For further information, please phone the gallery at (415) 977-0223, or visit ArtHaus at www.arthaus-sf.com
